LIVE THE UCF CREED

INTEGRITY
I will practice and defend academic and personal honesty.

SCHOLARSHIP
I will cherish and honor learning as a fundamental purpose of my membership in the UCF community.

COMMUNITY
I will promote an open and supportive campus environment by respecting the rights and contributions of every individual.

CREATIVITY
I will use my talents to enrich the human experience.

EXCELLENCE
I will strive toward the highest standards of performance in any endeavor I undertake.
About the University of Central Florida

The University of Central Florida is a thriving preeminent research university located in metropolitan Orlando. With more than 64,000 students, UCF is one of the largest universities in the United States. In addition to its impressive size and strength, UCF is ranked as a best-value university by The Princeton Review and Kiplinger’s, as well as one of the nation’s most affordable colleges by Forbes. The university benefits from a diverse faculty and staff who create a welcoming environment and opportunities for all students to grow, learn, and succeed.

A Foundation For Success

UCF and its 13 colleges offer more than 212 degrees from UCF’s main campus, hospitality campus, health sciences campus, 10 regional locations, and online program. The 1,415-acre main campus is 13 miles east of downtown Orlando and adjacent to one of the top research parks in the nation. Regional campuses are located throughout Central Florida and include a fully accredited College of Medicine in the Medical City at Lake Nona. UCF’s fully online programs include bachelor degrees, graduate degrees, and graduate certificates.

By the Numbers

UCF offers 93 bachelor’s, 86 master’s, 27 research doctorates, three professional doctorates, and three specialist degree programs, and it leads all universities in Florida by conferring more than 15,000 degrees a year. In fall 2016, the freshman class had an average SAT two-score of 1262, The Burnett Honors College enrolled nearly 1,700 students, and the number of incoming National Merit Scholars ranked UCF among the top 40 colleges and universities in the nation.

Top-Ranked College Education

UCF is an academic, partnership, and research leader in numerous fields, such as optics and lasers, modeling and simulation, engineering and computer science, business administration, education, hospitality management, health care, and video game design. In fact, UCF’s Florida Interactive Entertainment Academy is ranked as the nation’s number two game school by The Princeton Review.

Knight Life

Home to Bright House Networks Stadium and the CFE Arena, UCF hosts a variety of concerts and shows, plus NCAA sports and cultural events. Student housing is abundant, as are on-campus events and activities. UCF offers an array of student services, hundreds of student clubs and organizations, and dedicated academic resources to help students succeed in school and as alumni. The UCF Downtown Campus, scheduled to open in fall 2019, will provide innovative education for high-demand fields such as digital media and health information technology.
Dear Graduates:

I congratulate you on earning your degrees, a big achievement for you and your families!

We often say that the future of UCF and Orlando is big, and today I encourage you to think and dream big about your future.

Your university education will be of immeasurable benefit to you for the rest of your lives. As you leave UCF, or continue your education here, keep stimulating the intellectual curiosity that got you this far, and never stop learning.

Use your knowledge, talent, and degree to their fullest, and you will help to make a better future for our society.

Remember your friends, family, and faculty members who helped you grow intellectually, emotionally, and socially. And remember your university for the benefit of future students whose lives and livelihoods will be lifted here.

I believe everyone has potential. And, when all of us unleash our full potential together, anything is possible.

Best wishes for a lifetime of success and satisfaction.

Cordially yours,

John C. Hitt

* Applause is the most appropriate method of conveying congratulations as your graduate’s name is called. Other methods may keep your neighbors from hearing their graduate’s name.

As a courtesy to the graduates and families being recognized today, we ask that you remain in your seat until all graduates have crossed the platform.

The ceremony will last approximately two hours.

Thank you for joining the faculty, staff, administration, and student body in honoring our graduates.
Steve Crisafulli is the former speaker of the Florida House of Representatives. He is also a seventh-generation Floridian and a proud UCF alumnus.

Crisafulli manages his family’s cattle, citrus, real estate, development and construction business. Since 1996, he has been a director of the Brevard County Farm Bureau and served as president of the Bureau from 2003-05. He was also a supervisor for the Brevard County Soil & Water Conservation District and currently serves on the Florida Fish and Wildlife Foundation Board.

He served in the Florida House of Representatives from 2008-16, distinguishing himself as majority leader in 2013-14 and as House Speaker for 2014-16. Last year, he presided over a highly successful legislative session that funded several projects important to UCF.

Among his many honors, Crisafulli has received the President’s Award from the Florida Farm Bureau, the Defender of Liberty Award from the American Conservative Union, the Champion for Business Award (five times) from the Associated Industries of Florida, and the Award for Exceptional Leadership from the Florida Economic Development Commission.

Steve Crisafulli earned an associate’s degree from Brevard Community College and a bachelor’s degree in interdisciplinary studies from UCF.

Mori Hosseini is chair and CEO of ICI Homes, one of Florida’s most successful residential home-builders. ICI has created some of the largest master development communities in the state and is ranked by Builder Magazine among the nation’s Top 100 homebuilders.

Among many civic contributions and honors, Hosseini has served on the boards of Halifax Medical Center and the Florida Council of 100. He was named “Outstanding Philanthropist” by the Volusia/Flagler Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals and received the Herbert M. Davidson Memorial Award for Outstanding Community Service from the Community Foundation of Volusia and Flagler.

Hosseini has a long history of service to education in Florida. He is a former member and chair of the Board of Governors of the State University System of Florida, chair of Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University’s board of trustees, and member of the University of Florida’s board of trustees. Both the Mori Hosseini Center at Daytona State College and the ICI Center at Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University recognize his service to education.

Mori Hosseini earned a degree in Aeronautical Engineering from Chelsea College (England) and a bachelor of science degree and a master of business administration degree from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University.

Robert Utsey is Senior Vice President for Skanska USA Building, one of the largest and most successful construction and development networks in the country. Based in Orlando, he is responsible for business development and corporate training initiatives for the Florida and Georgia markets. He is also the chairman of Skanska’s Global Client Relations Group.

Utsey has been a Skanska leader for 15 years, following a successful career in manufacturing, distribution, and specialty retailing. He was a member of the team that developed and built many prominent facilities in our region, including Nemours Children's Hospital, the Florida Advanced Manufacturing and Research Center, and the Port Canaveral Terminal 6 and Welcome Center. He and Skanska are responsible for a number of UCF’s finest buildings, which have contributed to the utility and beauty of our campus.

A civic leader in Central Florida, Utsey is currently the board chair of the Orlando Economic Development Commission and Seminole State College Foundation. He has held leadership positions in many regional non-profit organizations, including the Boys and Girls Clubs, Central Florida Council of Boy Scouts of America, and The Arnold Palmer Invitational PGA Tour event.

Robert Utsey is a graduate of the University of Florida.

Geraldine Thompson was elected to the Florida House of Representatives in 2008 and to the Florida Senate in 2012. She served as Chair of the Orange County Legislative Delegation, becoming the first woman and first African-American to hold the leadership position. In 2014, she was named chair of the Florida Women's Legislative Caucus.

Prior to her legislative service, she was Director of Equal Opportunity and Assistant to the President at Valencia Community College for 24 years. Among her many accomplishments there was the establishment of the College Reach Out Program, which enabled thousands of low-income and disadvantaged students to attend college.

Thompson’s passion for history resulted in the publication of her book Black America Series: Orlando, Florida. She is also credited with preserving one of Orlando’s unique landmarks, the Well’s Built Hotel. Today, the Well’s Built Museum preserves the history of African-Americans in Central Florida. She also wrote the play, A Vote: A Voice, to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Voting Rights Act and capture the history of voting rights in Central Florida.

Geraldine Thompson received a bachelor’s degree with honors in journalism and business education from the University of Miami and a master’s degree in communications from Florida State University.

Buddy Dyer, Orlando’s longest-serving mayor, took the oath of office in 2003. Under his leadership and through strategic investments, Orlando is one of the nation’s fastest growing cities and the country’s most visited destination, hosting more than 65 million visitors annually.

Committed to inclusiveness, the former Florida state senator helped the community unite following the Pulse tragedy and has been a leader in ending veteran homelessness. He has ensured that Orlando embraces diversity, promotes fairness and equality, and is a welcoming, multicultural community.

Dyer has striven to increase cooperation, collaboration, and partnerships among Central Florida’s governments, business and civic communities, and residents with a focus on innovation, transportation, sustainability, and government efficiency.

Results of these efforts include the University of Central Florida-Valencia College campus in downtown Orlando. UCF Downtown will anchor the Creative Village innovation cluster, enroll 7,700 students, and generate an estimated $200 million annual economic impact. Other examples of Dyer’s collaborative leadership style include the Amway Center, the Dr. Phillips Center for the Performing Arts, and Camping World Stadium.

Buddy Dyer earned his undergraduate degree in civil engineering from Brown University and a law degree from the University of Florida.

Baccalaureate Honors

Baccalaureate Honors are conferred on those students who complete a minimum of 48 semester hours at UCF and attain an overall grade point average that falls in the top 10 percent of all graduating students in the same college over the prior two-year period.

Honors are distinguished as follows:

-  summa cum laude—students in the top 2.5 percent
-  magna cum laude—students in the top 5 percent but not in the top 2.5 percent
- * cum laude—students in the top 10 percent but not in the top 5 percent

The asterisk (*) appears as indicated above next to the name of each graduate who may qualify for Baccalaureate Honors.

Because records for the final term are incomplete at the time the commencement program is printed and final term grades may affect relative rankings and overall GPA, indication in the program of graduation with Honors is presumptive rather than conclusive.

Baccalaureate Honors list cutpoints are available at: http://commencement.ucf.edu/2017/spring/resources

The Commencement Ceremony and Academic Regalia

The Academic Procession has descended from religious processions that came to include teaching faculties when universities were closely associated with the medieval church. The presence of a piper in American academic processionals has become popular in recent years. The pipers for UCF’s ceremonies are David Enzfelder and Reg Lyle.

The procedure followed for the awarding of degrees is based on a practice developed at the University of Paris almost 800 years ago. In those days, the bishop of Paris, like every other bishop, was responsible for local educational curriculum and degree granting. His authority in these matters, however, soon came to be disputed by the teachers. They asserted that only they could be the proper judges of the qualifications of the students. This threatened impasse was resolved by a compromise under which the teachers, or masters, judged the merits of the students and then recommended them to the bishop for their degrees. Today’s ceremony includes a secularized version of that procedure. A representative of the Faculty Senate certifies that the student candidates are qualified to receive their degrees. The president then authorizes the awarding of the degree.

Academic heraldry in the form of academic dress reaches as far back as the earliest days of the oldest universities. Formal directives concerning the correct and proper wearing of academic regalia date back to the early 14th Century. In the United States, as a result of our English heritage, caps and gowns have been used since colonial times.

As heraldic devices such as shields, coats of arms, and standards could identify a knight and his individual heritage, academic regalia can describe the academic origin and accomplishments of the wearer. Easily recognizable are holders of bachelor’s, master’s, and doctoral degrees. With the same glance, the trained eye may identify the university that conferred the degree as well as the individual’s field of learning.

The shape and decorations of the gown are the keys to the highest degree earned by an individual. The gown for bachelor’s has long pointed sleeves and is designed to be worn closed only. The master’s gown has an oblong sleeve and is open at the wrist; the rear part of its oblong shape is square cut, and the front part has an arc cut away. The master’s gown may be worn open or closed. The doctor’s gown has bell-shaped sleeves, may be worn open or closed, and may be most readily identified by its velvet facing down the front and by three velvet chevrons on each sleeve.

It is the hood, however, which is the most important and distinctive feature of American academic pageantry. Chevrons enable those attending an academic function to distinguish at a glance the wearer’s academic heritage. The bachelor’s hood, seldom seen in American academic circles, is three feet long with a two-inch edging of velvet. The master’s hood is three and one-half feet long with a three-inch edging. The doctor’s hood is four feet long with a five-inch edging.

The color of the hood’s velvet edging represents the field in which the wearer earned his or her degree. Although black may be used for any area, colors denoting selected fields of learning are as follows at UCF and American universities: all Ph.D.s are edged in dark blue, while professional doctorates, such as the Ed.D., are edged in the color of professional discipline.

The gowns used by American colleges and universities are lined with silk in the official academic colors of the institution that conferred the degree. UCF graduates, for example, will wear hoods with linings of black and gold. Generally, a school’s academic colors are identical to its athletic colors.

The academic regalia you see before you today can be traced directly back to the beginnings of the oldest colleges and universities. In 1885, there occurred a widespread student movement in America to wear caps and gowns at commencement ceremonies. The graduating students seemed to feel a need for significant and dignified apparel for the occasion. By 1895, widespread adoption of a uniform code by 95 percent of colleges and universities in the country gave America its own distinct academic regalia.

However, at any academic gathering, there usually appear regalia which cannot be fathomed by these guidelines. Some of these may be from foreign universities; others are from those American institutions that have preferred to remain with the European tradition of allowing each school to determine its own costume. The result is the academic regalia you see before you today. The colors of the master hoods are as follows:

College Gonfalons

The gonfalon originated in the medieval state of Italy as an ensign of the state of office. The UCF gonfalons designate the university seal, the various colleges, and the core values of The UCF Creed. The colors of the university, black and gold, are joined together in a UCF star common to all colleges.

The University Mace

During the Middle Ages, the mace was an effective weapon in battle, but as newer and more powerful military arms developed, it was transformed into a symbol of authority.

The earliest ceremonial maces were borne by bodyguards of 12th Century English and French kings. By the end of the 16th Century, they were used widely by officials of English cities and towns. Today, the ceremonial mace is found in the British Houses of Parliament and is frequently carried in ecclesiastical processions and in university convocations and commencement ceremonies.

The mace incorporates two symbols identified with the University of Central Florida. The top is cast in the shape of the star found over the Pegasus in the UCF emblem. Inside the star is a reproduction of the “Flame of Hope” sculpture near the UCF library.

The mace is cast in bronze with three bronze UCF emblems inlaid at the crest of the rosewood staff. The center of the staff is engraved with the names of the presidents of UCF.

The creation of UCF’s mace was a collective effort by UCF art professor Jagdish Chavda, sculptor David Cambia, and wood craftsman David Conway.

The Presidential Medallion

The gold medallion worn by the university president at formal and ceremonial occasions marks the president as a distinguished scholar and administrator, the highest officer of the university, and one who strives to uphold the twin tenets established by its founders: Accent on the Individual and Accent on Excellence.

The medallion is embossed with the university seal showing the mythical Pegasus ascending toward a single heavenly star and the motto, Reach for the Stars. The seal serves as a visible reminder to each member of the university community to strive to reach individual goals. The president has been entrusted to maintain and develop an atmosphere in which these creeds can be realized. The presidential position represented by the medallion epitomizes the foundations and aspirations of the university that the president has pledged to uphold.

As the only university official who can formally award a degree, the president recognizes the graduates for meeting the standards of excellence set by the university and for reaching the point from which new ventures begin.

From the presentation of the first medallion in 1968 to charter President Charles Millican to the one worn today, the Presidential Medallion has remained a symbol of academic leadership and the legacy of those pioneers who launched a unique experiment in higher education.

Diploma Distribution Information

Approximately 6-10 weeks after commencement, all baccalaureate, education specialists, and master’s degree diplomas will be mailed to the address indicated on the student’s Intent to Graduate form. To update their diploma mailing addresses, undergraduate students should contact the Registrar’s Office, and master’s students should contact the College of Graduate Studies.

For additional information, undergraduate students should call the Registrar’s Office at 407-823-3100. Graduate students should contact the College of Graduate Studies at 407-823-4132.

Congratulations, graduates!

Lost and found items may be turned in or claimed at Guest Services, located at the main entrance on the second level. All University of Central Florida campus activities, events, programs, and facilities are available to all students of any race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, and veterans’ status with due respect to law and the university’s philosophy of respect for individual and personal dignity.
UCF ALMA MATER

All hail to Alma Mater whose banner black and gold,
Will wave in fame and splendor as the passing years unfold.
May loyalty and friendship, within our hearts unite,
And light the star to guide us ever upward in our flight.
With honor and affection our friendship will renew,
We sing of thee our Alma Mater ever true.
This commencement program will be available at http://commencement.ucf.edu/2017/summer/archive for download as a PDF beginning Monday, May 8, 2017.
