THE UCF CREED

Integrity, scholarship, community, creativity, and excellence are the core values that guide our conduct, performance, and decisions.

INTEGRITY
I will practice and defend academic and personal honesty.

SCHOLARSHIP
I will cherish and honor learning as a fundamental purpose of my membership in the UCF community.

COMMUNITY
I will promote an open and supportive campus environment by respecting the rights and contributions of every individual.

CREATIVITY
I will use my talents to enrich the human experience.

EXCELLENCE
I will strive toward the highest standards of performance in any endeavor I undertake.

Gonfalons Symbolize the Spirit of the University of Central Florida

College of Arts and Humanities
The senses of sight, sound, and sensation are transformed by spirit and creativity into meaningful diverse forms of expression in the College of Arts and Humanities.

The Burnett Honors College
Illumination is knowledge—the eternal flame symbolizes The Burnett Honors College’s mission to foster honor and passion for lifelong learning.

College of Business Administration
Images of competition and finance for the College of Business Administration with its innovative curriculum, state-of-the-art facilities, and nationally recognized programs.

College of Education and Human Performance
The apple has served as the definitive symbol of education and knowledge for centuries. And for the College of Education, a galaxy of encircling stars serves as a shining example of diverse opportunities for learning.

College of Engineering and Computer Science
The Space Transportation System symbolizes feats ever achieved and epitomizes the spirit of the College of Engineering and Computer Science.

College of Graduate Studies
Leadership, research, and service empower graduate students in the division’s quality learning environment. The doctoral cap, hood, and gown epitomize the highest achievement for the College of Graduate Studies.

College of Health and Public Affairs
Academic programs in the College of Health and Public Affairs are bound together by a shared sense of purpose—to serve communities and contribute knowledge that improves the quality of life of citizens.

College of Medicine
The Rod of Aesculapius, serpent entwined around a staff, is an ancient Greek symbol associated with healing the sick. The rod topped by the UCF Flame of Hope is spiraled with the DNA’s double helix to form the symbol for the College of Medicine.

College of Optics and Photonics
The striking multifaceted relief captures the spirit of the Age of Light and epitomizes the science and technology of the College of Optics and Photonics and its dominant influence in the 21st Century.

College of Sciences
Science seeks to explain how the world works—living organisms, the physical world, people in groups, and people as individuals. Just as a microscope gives a way to look at objects otherwise too small to see, so the tools of scientific inquiry let us observe nature in its many aspects.

Office of Undergraduate Studies
The Office of Undergraduate Studies provides the foundation, vision, and leadership necessary for students to reach their academic potential and to prepare for the steps, challenges, and rewards of lifelong learning.

Rosen College of Hospitality Management
The central fountain, framed by Mediterranean arches, has come to symbolize the Rosen College of Hospitality Management’s state-of-the-art campus and its standard of excellence for the industry.

The UCF Creed
Integrity, scholarship, community, creativity, and excellence are the core values that guide the university’s conduct, performance, and decisions.
